SENATE BILL ON FIRST READING

The following bill was introduced, read first time and referred to the Committee indicated:

S.B. 31 by Parker, Caperton, Hobby

Committee of Whole Senate
Subcommittee on Public Education

Relating to public education; making appropriations.

SENATE RESOLUTION 10

Senator Bivins offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, To live a lifetime doing what an individual loves doing most is one of the special blessings a person can receive; and

WHEREAS, Tom Blasingame wanted to spend his life on a horse, and the legendary cowboy accomplished just that having spent 73 of his 91 years working on a ranch; and

WHEREAS, He died while on his horse riding on the JA Ranch where he started working in 1916; and

WHEREAS, He chose to live alone on the ranch in the Palo Duro Canyon in a small camp house without electricity, working by himself to care for the land, cattle, water, and fences in that area; and

WHEREAS, Preferring the solitary ranch life to living in town where he had little to keep him busy, he did venture into town often to visit his wife, Eleanor, and watch the baseball games on television; and

WHEREAS, Described by friends as the typical old-time cowboy, this remarkable nonagenarian credited his longevity and good health to hard work, a simple life, and a daily helping of beef; and

WHEREAS, Senator Teel Bivins spent some of the most rewarding days of his life working side by side with Tom learning the right way, the gentle way, to handle livestock; and

WHEREAS, He loved all aspects of his work whether it be gathering wild mavericks in Bull Run Creek or processing shipped-in calves; and

WHEREAS, Until the end of his life he could ride 100 miles in the saddle, do a day's work, then go home and cook his dinner; and

WHEREAS, A member of the Matador Cowboy Association, he received numerous awards for his participation in the annual Matador Cowboy Reunions; and

WHEREAS, Former Governor Mark White recognized Mr. Blasingame in 1986 for contributing to and participating in the ranching industry; and

WHEREAS, In 1989 he was presented the Texas Trail Blazer Award at the Texas Ranch Roundup recognizing this outstanding cowboy who throughout his life exhibited the attributes that earned him the respect and admiration of the cattle industry; and

WHEREAS, Born in Waxahachie, Texas, on February 12, 1898, the son of a cattleman, he married Eleanor Morris of Clarendon on November 2, 1933; and

WHEREAS, His article entitled "Eight Decades a Cowboy" won the Western Heritage Wrangler Award from the National Cowboy Hall of Fame; and Heritage Wrangler Award from the National Cowboy Hall of Fame; and

WHEREAS, During his lifetime he established a permanent place for himself in the hearts of those who lived and worked with him; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 71st Legislature, 3rd Called Session, hereby extend deepest condolences to his family: his wife, Eleanor; his son, Tommy; his daughter, Nancy Etheridge; his four grandchildren, Kay Patterson, Millie Alford, Sherry Frost, and Bevin Etheridge; and his seven great-grandchildren; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That copies of this Resolution be prepared for those held dear by Thomas Everett Blasingame as a token of sympathy from the Senate of Texas, and that when the Senate adjourns this day, it do so in memory of Tom Blasingame.

The resolution was read and was adopted by a rising vote of the Senate.

GUEST PRESENTED

Senator Caperton was recognized and presented Dr. C. Christopher Gay of Bellville.

Dr. Gay, participating in the "Capitol Physician" program sponsored by the Texas Academy of Family Physicians, was welcomed by the Senate and received an expression of gratitude for his service today.
